

ISOMETRIX

Lighting + Design Ltd

Isometrix's extensive global portfolio encompasses all sectors of lighting design including Hospitality, Food & Beverage, Retail, Residential, Exterior, Commercial, one-off Events and Exhibitions.

Our award winning international lighting design consultancy offers the opportunity to work on challenging and unique projects worldwide working with the world's premier Architects, Interior Designers and Clients.

London Studios

Intermediate Lighting Designers

Candidates will have demonstrable creative and technical experience, be organised with the ability to offer ideas and solutions. The role includes design input into projects from concept to completion, working within a team with direct contact with Clients, Architects and Designers.

London Studio

Junior Lighting Designers

Good creative and communication skills are required. As part of our project team, you will be working directly with project Design Teams and Clients from concept generation through to on-site project completion. A willingness to learn, enthusiasm and pro-activity are essential.

Successful candidates will be able to demonstrate the following skills:

- Excellent visualisation skills including hand sketching (2D and 3D) and Photoshop renderings.
- Proficiency in AutoCAD, Adobe and MS Office.
- Fluent in French and English (spoken and written)

International travel will be required for all positions.

Competitive salary plus bonus and benefit package offered.

To join our dynamic multi-national team please send your CV and work samples to:

ltg@isometrix.co.uk
or 8 Glasshouse Yard, London, EC1A 4JN, UK

www.isometrix.co.uk